I understand that in order to perform, I must provide the Colorado Bandmasters Association with the written releases to perform copyrighted music, visual programs, and/or any special musical arrangements from the owners of those performance rights. I also understand that should I not provide said materials, we will not be allowed to perform. Also, I understand that we will not be scheduled for a performance position or clinic without the receipt of the "Initial Application and Letter of Intent," "Entry Fee," and "Other Fees" if applicable (all registration and extra fees are non-refundable).
